Chris Young, Flowers

I should have took you dancing A little candlelight romancing with roses But I was high up on a barstool Yeah, I was such a blind fool, now I know it You won't believe how much I've changed since you left It took losing you for me to find myself Oh, I wish that you could see me Steady hands without the whiskey, you'd be so proud Got that job down at the factory A brand new suit for Sunday and I'm in church now It's been one year since I sat behind a bar I went by the junkyard, and they've still got our car I still see you on your knees, begging me not to drive But I took away the keys and made you climb inside And I'd take your place in this field of stone if I only had the power Look what it took for me to finally bring you flowers Lord, I'd take your place in this field of stone if I only had the power Look what it took for me to finally bring you flowers Yeah, look what it took for me to finally bring you flowers
