

Christina Aguilera, Let There Be Love

I wanna tell you my secret
With just the sound of my breathing
I wanna know your hearts beating
I wanna tell you I wanna tell you

Like that, yeah it feels so good
That I can't hold back
Like that, hit the right spot
Making my eyes roll back
Let there be let there be love
Here in the here in the dark
Turning me turning me on
Not gonna fight anymore
Cause I want your touch
(Let's go!)

Let there be love
Here in the here in the dark
Turning me turning me on
Not gonna fight anymore
Cause I want your touch
(Let's go!)

Want you tell me you need it
I wanna hear it repeated
Want you to take me completely
Want you to tell me
Want you to tell me

Like that, yeah it feels so good
That I can't hold back
Like that, hit the right spot
Making my eyes roll back
Let there be let there be love
Here in the here in the dark
Turning me turning me on
Not gonna fight anymore
Cause I want your touch
(Let's go!)

Let there be love
Here in the here in the dark
Turning me turning me on
Not gonna fight anymore
Cause I want your touch
