

Christina Grimmie, ANYBODY'S YOU

Clearing off the table in my mind was set for two
Acting like it's nothing but I'm feeling like a fool
And something's gotta break before another one brings me down
They bring me down

(Yeah Yeah)

Next one had me trusting every word I thought was true
How could you keep lying as she's lying next to you?
And something's gotta break before another one brings me down
Yeah, they bring me down
But what if there's something that I keep missing?
What if there's someone that I can't lose?
Nights when I'm crying, will he listen?
Isn't there anybody?
What if there's someone that makes me happy?
Someone that I already know.
What if, what if, what if that anybody, anybody's you?
Any, anybody's you

Chasing after trouble with the one I wouldn't keep
One of many wasting time falling at his feet
Feels good going up then it crashes when he brings me down
They bring me down

(Yeah, Yeah)

I'm getting tired, tired
Of looking everywhere for somebody like you, like you
I'm just tired, tired
And it brings me down
They bring me down
But what if there's something that I keep missing?
What if there's someone that I can't lose?
Nights when I'm crying, will he listen?
Isn't there anybody?
What if there's someone that makes me happy?
Someone that I already know.
What if, what if, what if that anybody, anybody's you?
Any, anybody's you.
Mmm Yeah
Anybody's you

Someone to listen
Someone to make me happy
Someone who loves me
What if that anybody's you?
Someone to listen
Someone to make me happy
Someone who loves me
What if that anybody is you?

But what if there's something that I keep missing?
What if there's someone that I can't lose?
Nights when I'm crying, will he listen?
Isn't there anybody?
What if there's someone that makes me happy?
Someone that I already know.
What if, what if, what if that anybody...
Anybody's you?
