

Christy Lauren, The Rumour

Christy Lauren

Lauren Christy

The Rumour

Holding back cause there's nowhere to go

Hearing things that I don't want to know

But the rumour flies high, somehow it seems to get

Back to my heart, and it lies

They say things that I don't understand

And I know they have got the upperhand

But the rumour flies high, somehow it seems to get

Back to my heart, and it lies

And oh but I believe

Back to my heart, and it lies

Oh but I believe

[Chorus:]

The rumour can turn it all around,

Yeah the rumour can knock you to the ground,

Oh rumour, well hold on baby and let's not cry

Cause somehow its seems to get back to my heart and lies

It lies, and gets right back to you

[Chorus:]

And oh but I believe

The rumour, can turn it all around,

Oh the rumour, can knock you to the ground,

Oh rumour, well hold on baby and let's not cry

Cause somehow its seems to get back to my heart and lies

Did you hear the rumour

Yes it lies

Did you hear the rumour

Yes you lied

Cause somehow its seems to get back to my heart
