

CHVRCHES, GOOD GIRLS (JOHN CARPENTER)

Killing your idols is a chore
And it's such a fucking bore
Cause I don't need them anymore
So, maybe if you just got some guts
We'd kill them with a thousand cuts
And say we did it out of love

So save your breathe
Give a little of what you have left
Do they know something i don't?

Is it easier when you don't
Have to count to 10?
When you dpn't have ro pretend
I want to know that feelong

Is it easier when you don't have to start again
Whne you don't wnat to make amends?
I want to know that feeling

Good girls don't crazy
And good girls don't lie
A good girls justify but i don't
Good girls don't die
Good girls stay alive
Good girls satisfy but i won't
