

Ciara, Better Thangs (ft. Summer Walker)

Lately I been living my life
I don't pay the hate no mind doing better things with my time (yeah)
Elevated to a new height
Never do the same thing twice putting all the lames on ice (yeah)

I been sippin on this drink
I ain't got no complaints
Cici gotta her own lane eventually they come around
You can say I'm living the dream only winners on my team (uh huh)
You ain't gotta check up on me
I got everything that I need
(I'm on)

Better things, better things
All new everything better things, better things, better things, better things
Ain't got time for petty things
I'm on better things (yeah)

No it ain, t worth my time, no stop calling my line
You don't even cross my mind now I'm on to better things
No it ain't worth my time, no stop calling my line
You don't even cross my mind now I'm on to better things

I got grace
Put a nigga right in his place
Ain't got nothing else to say
Cause I know karma comes around so I pray
Never waste mental space
Or my energy
On the things I can't control
Like yeah now yeah now yeah now
Never let my problem weigh down
And I got love from all directions turn away from all bad presence
Out of sight out of mind
You won't ever ruin my vibe
I just wanna raise my price I'm immune to evil eye
On better things
Happened before

Better things, better things
All new everything better things, better things, better things, better things
Ain't got time for petty things
I'm on better things (yeah)

When you level up they don't like that
See a fake friend what I call that
Say they still love you but its all cap
Don't even trip I just fall back

I been busy loving me
Protecting all my energy
I don't need ya company
All I need is loyalty

I been sippin on this drink
I ain't got no complaints
Cause Cici gotta her own lane eventually they come around
You can say I'm living the dream only winners on my team
You ain't gotta check up on me I got everything that I need
(I'm on)

Better things, better things
All new everything better things, better things, better things, better things
Ain't got time for petty things

I'm on better things
