

Circle Of Grief, My Bleeding Heart

Shadows of the glancing moon embrace me now with your cold veil deep, deep in the glacial waters the moonlight is shimmering pale

There is darkness in my bleeding heart...

I have lost the will of living this life for me it has no more worth I am drowning in the glacial waters my soul leaving this earth

There is darkness...

In my deepest desparation all my thoughts are lead astry come and join my in the glacial waters
I will show you the way

There is darkness...
