Citizen Cope, Mandy

Hey ya hey hey hey ya hey hey...

She said everything you've learned yeah you've been told

How can I get you to forget for awhile

She's at my door won't leave me alone

And she says that she'll make my pain go by

But I know about Mandy cause Mandy you never forget

If she was a blond I'd tell her go home

But Mandy's a brunette

And she got noting left to wear

She'll get your heart forget your heart she'll get your heart again

And she got nothing left to wear

She'll get your heart forget your heart she'll get your heart again yeah my friend

Hey ya hey hey hey ya hey hey..

She said everything you've earned yeah you've rolled

I'll double it up if you give me a try

She's at my door won't leave me alone

And she said that she'll make my pain fly by

Twine the slot machine of the century part Vietnamese and Hindi

She'll set you free like the enemy retreat

In the back of a black Cadillac limozine

Well she's got nothing left to wear

She'll get your heart forget your heart she'll get your heart again

And she's got nothing left to wear

She'll get your heart forget your heart she'll get your heart again yeah my friend

Hey ya hey hey hey ya hey hey..

Well she's got nothing left to wear She'll get your heart forget your heart she'll get your heart again
