

Citizen Soldier, Strong For Somebody Else

I've played out that seems so much in my head
I have to wake up, but I'd rather be dead
Haunted by thoughts of the ones I love most
A picture that living alone with my ghost

Kill the pain and kill the family
Choke the dark down
Just be happy
Talk myself off
Of this ledge I know what to well

My personal hell
I'll bury it, bury it
Weight of the world
I'll carry it, carry it
Pile it all on
I've gotta be strong
For somebody, for somebody
Put my pain in a pill
I'll swallow it, swallow it
Too numb to feel
I'm hollow, I'm hollow
I have to hold on
I've gotta be strong
For somebody, for somebody
Somebody else

This voice in my head it wants me to choose
Dark selfish [?] live with my head [?]
To see ever get better, is this what to fight
Everyone has a breaking point
[?] find mine

Kill the body, not the memory
Wouldn't play [?]
Kind of scares me
What it takes to just save myself

My personal hell
I'll bury it, bury it
Weight of the world
I'll carry it, carry it
Pile it all on
I've gotta be strong
For somebody, for somebody
Put my pain in a pill
I'll swallow it, swallow it
Too numb to feel
I'm hollow, I'm hollow
I have to hold on
I've gotta be strong

Somebody else

My personal hell
For somebody, for somebody

I'll swallow it, swallow it
Too numb to feel

Somebody else
Somebody else
Somebody else
