City And Colour, Sleeping Sickness

And I awoke
Only to find my lungs empty
And through the night, so it seems I'm not breathing
And now my dreams are nothing like they were meant to be
And I'm breaking down, I think I'm breaking down

And I'm afraid, to sleep because of what haunts me Such as living with the uncertainty That I'll never find the words to say which would completely explain Just how I'm breaking down

Someone come and, someone come and save my life Maybe I'll sleep when I am dead But now it's like the night is taking up sides With all the worries that occupy the back of my mind Could it be? This misery will suffice

(Gordon Downey singing this verse)
I've become, the simple souvenir of someone's guilt
Like the sea, I'm constantly changing from calm to ill
Madness fills my heart and soul
As if the great divide could swallow me whole
Oh, how I'm breaking down

Someone come and, someone come and save my life Maybe I'll sleep when I am dead But now its like the night is taking up sides With all the worries that occupy the back of my mind Could it be? This misery will suffice

Someone come and, someone come and save my life (save my life) Someone come and, someone come and save my life (save my life) Someone come and, someone come and save my life Could it be? This misery will suffice
