Claude Kelly, Your Lies

Im Not Sure Im Ready To Leave But I Dont Think Its Safe If I Stay And The Burden Of Loving You Is Heavy For Me Yeah (yeah)

But I Just Can't Seem To Turn And Walk Away

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes) And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse

And the only truth that Ive ever known is when you're tellin me you'r lies (your lies), and I. Loves been a disaster for me

What started out so beautiful has turned to pain

What happened to my happily ever after

See I know that its been over for a while but I cant break away (break away)

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes) And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse

And the only truth that Ive ever known is when you're tellin me you'r lies (your lies), and I. Got me holding on to ya

Got me confused I don't know whats real or fake

Baby now the only thing Im used ta

Everyday, everynight, all the time I hear your lies

Cause everytime that I feel at home is when Im lookin in your eyes (your eyes)

And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)

Now I cant tell a lie, its all a blur, not really sure, if youre a blessing or curse

And the only truth that Ive ever known is when youre tellin me your lies (your lies)
