

Clay Davidson, One More Day

One More Day
Intro (verse)

G

I've been down on my luck And down on my last dime
Feel like giving up Feel like I'm out of time
But I'm gonna keep on trying till I've reached the other side
And I'm gonna make it happen no matter what the price

What's one more day of life's troubles
One more bridge I have to cross
One more year of life's aging
How many more will it cost oh lord
Tell me how many more will it cost

Break

Well it's true that I've been lost out in the pouring rain
And I turned to the bottle just to try to ease the pain
When you're down to your last swallow and you lay your head to rest dawn breaks, it's another day it starts all over again

What's one more day of life's troubles
One more bridge I have to cross
One more year of life's aging
How many more will it cost oh lord
Tell me how many more will it cost

What's one more day of life's troubles
One more bridge I have to cross
One more year of life's aging
How many more will it cost oh lord
Tell me how many more will it cost oh lord
Tell me how many more will it cost
