

Clay Davidson, Unconditional

Daddy waited up in the kitchen by himself I came stumbling in that night with liquor on my breath
He said son I know u live here
But this is still my home
Its my way or the highway
So I said alright Im gone

Pre chorus:

And before i slammed that door
I said i hate u
He just shook his head and said ok

Chorus:

But u cant stop my love for u itll be here thats a given as long as i am livin on this earth
one thing is true.
U can turn away, forget me
curse my name
but love will never let u go Son my love is unconditional

Life is like a circle Slowly turning on itself but girl it took losing you to finally know how bad it felt We stood in this bedroom a year ago today hangin onto pride and anger as we threw our love away

Pre Chorus:

And before u slammed that door u said i hate u
but tonightif u could only hear me say

Chorus:

u cant stop my love for u
itll be here thats a given
as long as i am livin on this earth
one thing is true.
U can turn away, forget me
curse my name but love wont let me let u go girl always know my love is unconditional
