

Clay Walker, Live, Laugh, Love

(Gary Nicholson/Allen Shamblin)

I'm gonna live, laugh, love just for today

Gonna take all the trouble that tomorrow might bring and put it away

Gonna drink every drop of happiness

'Til they cover me up

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love

I got a buddy that wakes up worrin' about stocks and bonds

He's up and he's down and he only smiles

When the markets strong

I spend my whole week wages

At the dance on Saturday night

I won't never grow a portfolio

But hey that's alright

I'm gonna live, laugh, love just for today

Gonna take all the trouble that tomorrow might bring and put it away

Gonna drink every drop of happiness

'Til they cover me up

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love

I got a cabin in the country and the tin roof rattles

When the rain comes down

Where the wind through the pine helps me unwind

While the world goes 'round

I got a woman that fills my heart so full

That it overflows

And how it gets any better than this

Brother I don't know

I'm gonna live, laugh, love just for today

Gonna take all the trouble that tomorrow might bring and put it away

Gonna drink every drop of happiness

'Til they cover me up

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love

I'm gonna live, laugh, love just for today

Gonna take all the trouble and put it away

Gonna drink every drop of happiness

'Til they cover me up

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love

I'm gonna live, laugh, love just for today

Gonna take all the trouble that tomorrow might bring and put it away

Gonna drink every drop of happiness

'Til they cover me up

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love

I'm gonna live, gonna laugh, gonna love