

Cleo, Fighter

Step is for hope
You gotta get up when you fall
Every day is a chance
To achieve what you want

Even when I'm hurt
I celebrate my scars
They've been a better me
They're reminding me to fight for my dreams

I'm
I'm a fighter
I'm a fighter

Everything is gonna be alright
Everything is gonna be okay
Everything is gonna be alright

I will let myself to fly
I'm the creator of my own mind
My own mind

I'm the wizard
Of my life
I will fight
Until I die
This is my life
My life

I'm the wizard
Of my life
I will fight
Until I die
This is my life
My life

Everything is gonna be alright
Everything is gonna be okay
Everything is gonna be alright

Dream big, work hard
Don't forget who you are
Your souls is to wild
You don't live just to die

Step out of the cage
And break down all your chains
Now hold your head up high
Spread your wings to the sky

Hold up
Hold your head up high
Don't go
Don't go back this time
I know
I know
I know you are stronger

I'm
I'm a fighter
I'm a fighter

I will let myself to fly
I'm the creator of my own mind

My own mind

I'm the wizard
Of my life
I will fight
Until I die
This is my life
My life

I'm the wizard
Of my life
I will fight
Until I die
This is my life
My life
