joely saw the pinky core of neutered hippy homes binky watched the babble pox and slithered off to moan oh we know you come and go but see see what's become peter's cold has taken hold and he bark bark bark in crufts (repeat chorus)

so sue the shoe is slipping you don't dither from behind may the moke our 7th bloke is peeking out the blinds
peter's gone and left your mum to bark bark bark in crufts (repeat chorus twice)
