

CLOCK MACHINE, So close so far

Remember like you said what we've done
It's over now
We have to move on
You'll never forget me
I saw you tried before
Imagine that I'll stay here forever
So if you change your mind someday
In the [?] will be together
I won't be far away

Stop trying to get memories of your head
By telling yourself
The others have better than me
Don't you hang the phone right now woman
There's one more thing to be said
I want you to know

You'll jump and I'll flame
Or you could lie to yourself
Cause memories will stay
With the pain and the sorrow

You know that I love you
You know what it happened back then was not fair
Baby I need you
Every night
Every days
So close so far
I wonder how you're feeling inside right now girl
Baby I need you
Talk to me
Look at me

Flame
Flame
You'll jump and I'll flame
Or you could lie to yourself
Lie Lie Lie
Cause memories will stay
With the pain and the sorrow
You're giving me the reason to cry
Alright
