

Clones Of Sam, Innocence

Innocence

You notice I can't look away
Hey you, what's in the rain
That makes it right?
No longer have I anything
So bright, why can't you see?

It takes you more than time
It makes you more than mine

Everyday I've been alive
These situations will arise
You've never taken any time for me

Only one
I'm faithful to nobody else
Yeah you, I can't be helped
Taught all my life
How sacrifice is everything
Well that's fine
but not by me...

I gave you more than time
I made you warm inside

Everyday I've been alive
These situations will arise
You've never taken any time for me

Innocence
Innocence
Innocence
You're my innocence
No more
