

Closterkeller, Eve And Adam

I know that I'm not perfect;
He's got a sweet forked tongue
I'll let myself be tempted
Let him talk; I know what I want

The tempting sin, the world outside
I've gotten tired of Paradise

Eve and Adam
Now she's got the key, the knowledge is near
Eve and Adam
By the ancient tree

Adam says he won't bite it;
"The will of God"; sour grapes...
But one swing of my hips
And he's mine, that's all that it takes

The tempting sin, the world outside
I've gotten tired of Paradise

Eve and Adam
Now she's got the key, the knowledge is near
Eve and Adam
By the ancient tree

I am a woman, aware of the power I have
I've got myself to give, myself I can take back
Silently I rule them, playing with their feelings
It's easy to fool them; both don't know who pulls the strings

The tempting sin, the world outside
I've gotten tired of Paradise
I'll take the bitter with the sweet
I choose to see where this path leads

Eve and Adam
Now she's got the key, the knowledge is near
Eve and Adam
By the ancient tree

I am a woman, aware of the power I have
I've got myself to give, myself I can take back
Silently I rule them, playing with their feelings
It's easy to fool them; both don't know who pulls the strings
