Clutch, Subtle Hustle

Back again with a quickness, pick it up, pick it up. Master arithmeticness, light it up, light it up. I got the heat in both feets, snake handler's hands. Come back with slickness and do it all again.

My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter. I let it ride on, I let it ride on.

Now I'm the media's darling, pick it up, pick it up. An international phenomenon, light it up, light it up. I cause eclipses with a wave of the hand. Let them hang in ellipses and do it all again.

My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter. I let it ride on, I let it ride on.

I got your number. I steal your thunder. I got your mother's maiden name tattooed on my arm.

I drive out daemons. Can I hear an Amen? Now say my name. Lay hands on screaming heathens. And do it all again.

My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter. I let it ride on, I let it ride on.
