

Colbie Caillat, Two Birds

Two birds, floating in the deep blue sea
Miles gone, forgot we could spread our wings
Drifted apart, but I know we tried to hold on Started at the shore, long ago, safe in your arms

Roll with the high and the low tides
Lost in the stars and the night sky
You'll find your way by moon light
I'll find mine by sunshine

I'll love you wherever you go
Wherever you go
I'll love you wherever you go
Ooh-oo

You'll be living out west, where the flowers grow on an open road
I'll be living down south with an open heart to the unknown
And it feels like
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we

I'll love you wherever you go
Wherever you go
I'll love you wherever you go
Ooh-oo

Two birds, singing from across the seas
Sweet songs of love, and when to fly free

Roll with the high and the low tides
Lost in the stars and the night sky
You'll find your way by moon light
I'll find mine by sunshine

I'll love you wherever you go
Wherever you go
I'll love you wherever you go
Ooh-oo
I'll love you wherever you go
Wherever you go
I'll love you wherever you go
Ooh-oo

And it's sound like
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we, umm-da-da-da, umm-da-da-da
Ooh-we
