

Cold, Bizarre

Everyone to tell, I want to breathe the fumes,
Everyone got blessed, I still love you.
No one ever said I don't enjoy the shame,
No one ever said I don't enjoy the game.

Nothing ever changes in the bizarre (x4)

Everyone to tell, I want to breathe the fumes,
Everyone got blessed, I still love you.
No one ever said I won't enjoy the shame,
No one ever said I won't enjoy the game.

Nothing ever changes in the bizarre (x4)

I came (to) a world, it's farther ruled out.
No one believed God loved his children,
I'm all alone, no one forgives me
I've said too much, God loved his children.

Nothing ever changes in the bizarre (x4)

Nothing ever changes in.. (x3)

Nothing ever changes...
