Collage, I'll Be Loving You

I always thought I was doing fine Spreading myself around another good time Then it hit me from out of the blue I was falling in love with you

But now everythings been changed My hopes my dreams Are rearranged it's true And it's all because of you My baby

(chorus)
I'll be loving you all my life
Til my dying day is through
I'll be loving you
Forever(2x)

Every night I wonder if you know No matter what they say I won't let go Don't ask yourself if I'll always be there Cause forever's how long I'll care

As time goes by and the feeling gets stronger To be in your arms can't wait any longer Look in my eyes And see it's true Day and night All my thoughts are of you

(chorus)
