

Colour Of Fire, Images Of You

I've got pictures of you hidden away in a draw,

I doubt you want me to have these anymore,

I've got photographs, I've got letters too,

I've got Images, Images of You.

Maybe a rainy day, I'll pull them right out and show all your friends just what your about

Yeah, I've got photographs, I've got letters too,

I've got Images, Images of You.

Take these photographs away,

Like a memory they'll fade,

I slipped the negatives their way.
