

Common Children, Stains Of Time

When the sunshine burns the darkness Remove the veil that lingers on Your face
The stains of time still mark us
Standing in the aftermath of grace

Standing in the aftermath of grace

Do you want to hear these stories
of love and our mistakes?
Will you show us all Your glory
to soothe and to erase
The stains of time

Do you want to hear these stories
of love and our mistakes?
Will you show us all Your glory
to soothe and to erase...
