

Conan Gray, Wish You Were Sober

Wish You Were so
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were sober
sober, sober, sober

this party's shit
wish we could dip
go anywhere but here
don't take a hit
don't kiss my lips
and please don't drink more beer

I ;am crawl out the window now cause I don't like anyobe around kinda hope you're followin' me out but this is definitely not my crowd

19, but you act 25 now
knees weak, but you talk pretty fly ripped jeans and a cup thet you just downed take me where the music ain't too loud trades drinks, but you don't even know her save me till the party is obver kiss me in the seat of you rover real sweet, but I wish you were sober

Wish You Were so
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were sober
sober, sober, sober
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were sober
sober, sober, sober

trip down the road
walking you hole
you kiss me at your door pulling me close beg me stay over but I'm over this roller coaster

I am crawl out the window now getting got at saying : Gotta bounce! honestly, you always let me down and I know we're not just hanging out

trades drinks, but you don't even know her
save me till the party is obver
kiss me in the seat of you rover
real sweet, but I wish you were sober

Wish You Were so
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were sober
sober, sober, sober
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were so
Wish You Were sober
