

Conor Maynard, Crowded Room

I still remember that perfect smile
That you gave me
The first time taht i saw you
I knew it then
And i still know now
That my darling
I'll always adore you

Promise me that you'll always be
The same person you've always been
And love me wheather i am strong or weak
Say you won't let go
Say you won't let go

I am standing in the crowded room
But it doesn't change that all i see is you
I swaer that you're perfect
I don;t deserve this night you
Night ith you
I am standing in the crowded room
If heaven's a place than it was made for two
I swaer that you're perfect
I don;t deserve this night you
but i'd love to spend my time with you i swear it feels like you're made for me by the way our that lips here together and when we lay in each other arms hope you know i could stay there forever

Promise me that you'll always be
The same person you've always been
Say you won't let go
Say you won't let go

I am standing in the crowded room
But it doesn't change that all i see is you
I swaer that you're perfect
I don;t deserve this night you
Night ith you
I am standing in the crowded room
If heaven's a place than it was made for two
I swaer that you're perfect
I don;t deserve this night you
but i'd love to spend my time with you
