

Corbin, Mourn

[Verse]

Call me out, it's all I ask
Put me on trial for all that I have
Break my pride, what's left
Call me out, it's all I ask
End all my reaping, put one in my head
Break me down, break down
Find me in the dark half dead
Craving the comfort, the words that she said
Push me down, keep down
Find me in the dark, what wealth?
Take all I own, leave me sick with myself
Take me down, push me down
I was able, breath so stable
When I end it all
I was able, breath so stable
When I end it all
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable (stable)
No, I ain't so stable (stable)
No, I ain't so stable (so stable)
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable (stable)
No, I ain't so stable
No, I ain't so stable (so stable)
No, I ain't so stable
