

Course Of Nature, Wall od shame

Something has happened to your world
Can you imagine, you could
There's too much pressure on you now
Why you would ever throw away whats been given to you
Woke up and nothing's even there

CHORUS:

Now your falling just to fall away
It is hard
Sit inside your wall of shame
Believing whats forgotten
Makin' time to find a world
Sit inside your wall of shame
Where nothing even matters
Can you say that I'm to blame?
When trouble lingers on your mind
You wait but dig in deeper
Theres no more room for honesty
Breathe in the vapors of your lies
Just when you're choking on them
These thoughts are spinning 'round your head chorus 2x
