Course Of Nature, Wall od shame

Something has happened to your world Can you imagine, you could There's too much pressure on you now Why you would ever throw away whátś been given to you Woke up and nothing's even there CHORUS: Now your falling just to fall away It is hard Sit inside your wall of shame Believing whats forgotten Makin' time to find a world Sit inside your wall of shame Where nothing even matters Can you say that I'm to blame? When trouble lingers on your mind You wait but dig in deeper Theres no more room for honesty Breathe in the vapors of your lies Just when you're choking on them These thoughts are spinning 'round your head chorus 2x
