

Courtney Love, Wedding Day

I left this back, black and bloody
All these snakes they rot inside of me
Do you think you can understand
What it takes just to be a man?!
Get out, get out, get out of my bed

'Do your thing' begins and ends with sex
I know better than you, and it's a touch called lex
See this woman with reptile eyes,
I can buy you as I rise
Get out, get out, get out of my head

One: Break my neck on my Wedding Day
Two: Here comes the bride, and she's covered in egg
Three: She can't walk, but she can crawl
Four: Aaaah!

Women are so delicate,
Just remember that I'll never forget!
And if I see you naked now
Shut up, I said: no!

Have you ever seen a cripple dance?
You paid him money, I think now is your chance
All the things that you'll never hear
Like a mouth to your deaf ear
Get out, get out, get out of my bed!

One: break my neck on my Wedding Day
Two: it is divorce from reality,
Three: daddy, daddy don't you fuck with me
Four: now you're naked now you're burning out!

And in cowl covered in shit,
If there's a sore eye, I haven't seen it yet
I will rise again and again
Fuck off, I said: no!

No!, no!
