

Cozy Powell, Na Na Na

Na na na na

When I was a kid my old man said to me
When you grow up son what cha gonna be?
You gonna go to school and get a degree?
Or you gonna go to work in a factory?

I said

Na na na na

I know what I want and I know what I can
And I wanna get a job in a rock'n roll band.

Well

the man at the desk said

I know how you feel.

But how d'ya like a job fixing automobiles
Your card says you got no musical training

I said hey

look man

you just don't get my meaning.

I don't wanna be no guitar star

And the man on the piano works too damn hard.

And the bass man he don't cop for no glamour

I wanna be the man with the fifty pound hammer going.

Na na na na

I know you get your kicks

Playing Hendrix licks

You're a wizard of Wembley Central

You're the J. S. Bach of Belsize park

And me I'm just plain mental.

But when I play my boogie

when I play my blues

It's like a whole tank regiment on the move

You can play the notes and you can tell the story

Me I'll just settle for the power and the qlory.
