

Crab Invasion, Dart

Up there darling
Ten years above from us here
You look in my eyes and see the limpid refill
But down here darling
When every second is dart
Skyscrapers shrink as words to size of goose bumps

Through the touch of cinnamon and coffee flavoured oil
Throw your body to the beats of our love
