Crash Kings, 14 Arms

You can't say you'll start a revolution Just because you're six feet into your head And I won't lie, I'm singing evolution But 14 arms will execute the point that I stress But there won't be anything Compared to what the world has shown us We're nothing but a speck Let's give them what they least expect If the snake gets the rabbit in the end Think twice, then pretend To reverse the roles And tell me what you think is the best Should you take it like a monkey or a man? Well God only knows It's alright, lay your cards on the table And throw your voice into the ring of the fight And I won't lie, I'm willing and able But 14 arms will execute the point, yeah execute the point But there won't be anything Compared to what the world has shown us We're nothing but a speck Let's give them what they least expect If the snake gets the rabbit in the end Think twice, then pretend To reverse the roles And tell me what you think is the best Should you take it like a monkey or a man? Well God only knows
