

Crepuscle, Faultline

As day gives way to dusk, the sun begins its descent
Awakened by the darkness of night
The mystical eagle takes flight and lights up the sky soaring with unrivaled splendor and grace
Emerging from slumber, the winterborn, reclaims its throne in the sky
Ascending once more to the kingdom of lights

Lead: Stucky

Against the darkened night sky, adorned by shimmering stars, the majestic glow comes alive

A sight that's truly divine

Heavenly skies illuminating the night with divine hues of viridan

Magnificent glow of ethereal lights enrapture the soul with heavenly delight

Emerging from slumber, the winterborn, reclaims its throne in the sky

Ascending once more to the kingdom of lights

Lead: Stucky

At dawn the spectacle ends; dissolving into the ether

But it won't be long before the eagle will once again soar

Lights of the North mystify

Enthralling ethereal glow

Forever a feast for the eyes

Enchanting Heavenly Skies

Lights of the North mystify

Enthralling ethereal glow

Forever a feast for the eyes

Enchanting Heavenly Skies
