

Culture Club, Generations Of Love

I don't know much
but I know what I feel there's too many people fighting tied to the wheel
I don't know much
but I know what i see there's too many people crying washed out to sea
and there's much more we can say much more we can do
much more we can learn
generations of love
I don't know you but you know what I am hey I don't need redemption or no government plan
no big AIDS sensation
no 28 clause
the end of apartheid
no message of war
the jew and the gentile
the black and the gay
the lost and the futile they've all got something to say the african nation
the sword of Islam
the rebels in china
the sikhs and the tams
the house of our father
the volumes of guilt
the luck of the Irish
the blood that we've spilt
the angels and martyrs
the lovers and saints
the sisters of mercy
the brothers of pain
