Curl Up And Die, Instrumental

She kisses like cough syrup when I have a cold. but we're not in love, we're just alone. Like a drug company's overdose. Trying to replace our heads with holes.

We're missing days and spending weeks. Only passing through looking for company. And semen released is a rotting stomach. Like a body drained of blood. My flaw. Our failure.