

D.O.N.S. & Maurizio Inzaghi, Searching for Love

When I met you girl
You've been in love with my friend
You crossed my eyes
I couldn't understand
When my heart start beating
When you told me your name
My first thought was
When I will see you again?

Now I'm searching for love
For someone like you
Too many times past by
But now I found you

I was searching for love
For someone like you
Too many time past by
But now I found you

I was searching for love
For someone like you
Too many time past by
But now I found you

I was searching for love
For someone like you
Too many time past by
But now I found you

Now I found you

I was searching for
I was searching for
I was searching for

When my hearts start beating
When you told me your name
My first thought was
When I will see you again?

I was searching for love
For someone like you
Too many time past by
But now I found you

I was searching for love
For someone like you
Too many time past by
But now I found you

You're in my heart
You're in my mind
You are the one I have ever wanted to find
