

DaBaby, BLANK (ft. Anthony Hamilton)

Man first of all look

I'm having problems in real life, fuck all that internet shit, I'm not into that shit

She having problems too, she just sent me a text, want me to pull up and give her that dick

She know a nigga so ill with that shit

She know a nigga be killing that shit

Her man ain't at home, he's a goner, ain't seen her that much since the covid, she want me to come

She know I done been through some shit

Really ain't even trying to hit, let me cry on your shoulder

She noticed lately I been quiet and focused

That nigga a lie, said he know me

I had to cut off some ties with some homies

I had to get on my grind by my lonely

I don't need nobody but me and my 40

Nobody but me and my daughters

Don't need nobody but me and my lawyers

Even if we lose, we can afford it

Pull up outside the courthouse in a Maybach

Hopping out, cleaner than A-Jax

Oh, it's gone be some cameras, say that

Burberry peacoat, this fit cost me 8 racks

You catch you whole 'nother vibe, when you fuck with a stepper don't you

Screaming fuck all you niggas, ain't hot, you can get some rec you want it?

And the way that I stare in your eyes, it make you feel sexy, don't it?

Bitch some pressure, I can't be normal, I be giving her lectures and sexing on her

She be throwing it back, yeah

Yeah, her nigga done made her mad, she don't know how to act, uh yeah

I think I heard a voice from outside say "Honey I'm back"

She looked up at me and said no you didn't

My gun was too far on the floor to get it

The door done swing open, I know that nigga

She gone make me blank

And lord knows I will

He gone have me pulling out a pistol

Said lord knows I will

She gone make me blank

Instead of being blind sided

Imma overreact, I might slide right on out

Said lord knows I will

She gone make me blank

Don't make me blank, I know

Wait, hold up OG

I know you, I don't think that you know me

I was just 'bout to get out of here homie

See me and her, we ust be chillin, I'm really her bestie

She talk to me when she stressing

The last time we spoke, she told me that she think you a curse

I really think that you a blessing

Think about it, let's put down the weapon

What the hell you gone shoot me 'fore?

I just seen your ass on the TV the other day, you can go get you a new lil hoe

(Feature Artist) Hold on young nigga, naw naw naw, not yet

I was out here getting money, you was all in my bed

She was embarrassed of the things she never said

Why she choose DaBaby?

She gone make me blank

And lord knows I will

He gone have me pulling out a pistol

Said lord knows I will

She gone make me blank

Imma overreact, I might Instead of being blind sided

Imma overreact, I might slide right on out
Said lord knows I will
Instead of being blind sided
Imma overreact, I might Instead of being blind sided
Imma overreact, I might slide right on out
Said lord knows I will
She gone make me blank
