Damien Rice, Dogs

She lives with an orange tree
The girl that does yoga
She picks the dead ones from the ground
When we come over

And she gives I get Without giving anything to me

Like a morning sun Like a morning Like a morning sun Good good morning sunbr> The girl that does yoga When we come over Girl that does yoga

He lives in a little house On the side of a little hill Picks the litter from the ground Litter little brother spills

He gives I get Without giving anything to me

And the dogs they And the dogs they And the dogs they run In the good good morning sun

Side of a little hill Litter little brother spills Side of a little hill

Oh and she's always dressed in white She's like an angel, man She burns my eyes Oh and she turns She pulls a smile We drive her round And she drives us wild Oh and she moves like a little girl I become a child, man She moves my world And she gets splashed in rain And turns away and leaves me standing

She lives with an orange tree The girl that does yoga Got a wolf to keep her warm When he comes over

She gives He gets Without giving anything to see

And the day it ends And the day it And the day it ends And there's no need for me

The girls that does yoga

When we come over The girls that does yoga
