Damien Rice, Grey Room

Well I've been here before Sat on the floor in a grey grey room Where I stay in all day I don't eat, but I play with this grey grey food

Desole, if someone is prayin' then I might break out, Desole, even if I scream I can't scream that loud

I'm all alone again Crawling back home again Stuck by the phone again

Well I've been here before Sat on a floor in a grey grey mood Where I stay up all night And all that I write is a grey grey tune

So pray for me child, just for a while That I might break out yeah Pray for me child Even a smile would do for now

'Cause I'm all alone again Crawling back home again Stuck by the phone again

Have I still got you to be my open door Have I still got you to be my sandy shore Have I still got you to cross my bridge in this storm Have I still got you to keep me warm

If I squeeze my grape and I drink my wine Coz if I squeeze my grape and I drink my wine Oh coz nothing is lost, it's just frozen in frost, And it's opening time, there's no-one in line

But I've still got me to be your open door, I've still got me to be your sandy shore I've still got me to cross your bridge in this storm And I've still got me to keep you warm

Warmer than warm, yeah Warmer than warm, yeah Warmer than warm, yeah Warmer than warm, yeah
