Damon Albarn, Everyday Robots

They didn?t know where he was gone But they knew where he was Was in it!

We are everyday robots on our phones In the process of getting home Looking like standing stones Out there on our own We?re everyday robots in control Or in the process of being sold Driving in adjacent cars ?Til you press restart

They didn?t know where he was gone But they knew where he was Was in it!

Everyday robots just touch thumbs Swimming in lingo they become Stricken in a status sea One more vacancy For everyday robots getting old When our lips are cold Looking like standing stones Out there on our own

We?re robots in ringback tones In the process of getting home
