

Damon Albarn, Heavy Seas Of Love (ft. Brian Eno)

When your soul isn't right
And it's raw to the night
It's in your hands
When the traces of dark come
To fade in the light
You're in safe hands

Heavy seas of love
Radiance is in you
As above so below
On the heavy seas of love

Heavy seas of love
We come together in you
Counting out the new moons
On the heavy seas of love

When the world is to fall
You can jump you won't fall
You're in safe hands
What the day will now give
How those seeds will now live
It's in your hands

Heavy seeds of love
Radiance is in you
As above so below
On the heavy seas of love

Heavy seas of love
We come together in you
As above so below
On the heavy seas of love

Heavy seeds of love
Radiance is in you
As above so below
On the heavy seas of love

Heavy seas of love
We come together in you
As above so below
As above so below
On the heavy seas of love
