

Damon Albarn, The Marvelous Dream

Hurricane spitting Tornado
Growl over London today
Brought some God fire to the stay
Demons towards Jerusalem
The spirit comes upon a mighty way
Felt some God fire in it's way

I call to the dance, now the party begun
Alcohol, holiday, I'm a drug'n'bass strong
Levitating you've jumped around May queen
A time for revival or maybe just the marvelous dream

And the moon rises higher, can call me
The end of the cycle has come again
Oh, I am helpless innate
Awake in the matter next morning
Empty your belly, I cought my time on a
I am helpless, I'll forget

I call to the dance, now the party begun
Alcohol, holiday, I'm a drug'n'bass strong
Go swap your bed
The beating of your heart will prove that you are not quite dead
