

Dana Russell, TELEGRAPH

I'm looking for where it is from
To understand why it is so
It's a telegraph!? I don't know
And looking for, everything becomes so clear
The sound is just human
It's a telegraph!? Uh!
Maybe it's coming from my heart
Maybe it was a call from Mars
Uh, love forever, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
Maybe it's coming from my brain
Looking for your help invane
Uh, love forever, forever
And then we woke up together
Uhm, magic is strong
Just a telegraph!? I don't know!
It's stupid thing to be alone
Really I thought the opposite, for years and years and years.
Just a telegraph! Uh!
Maybe it's coming from my heart
Maybe it was a call from Mars
Uh, love forever, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
Maybe it's coming from my brain
Looking for your help invane
Uh, love forever, forever
Forever, forever, forever, forever
Maybe it's coming from my heart
Maybe it was a call from Mars
Uh, love forever,
Maybe it's coming from my heart
Maybe it was a call from Mars
Uh, love forever, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
Maybe it's coming from my brain
Looking for your help invane
Uh, love forever, forever
