

Dannii Minogue, Goodbye Song

Hey there it's me
I just checked my calls there are 37 from you
Sorry I've been busy shaking up my vision
I need to make it clearer to you
Beam me up
I'd like to say it's been cool my therapist will thank you
Baby, talking won't pay
I've got more to say to the girl who does my nails

You can sugar me all you like baby
Had a feeling you might baby
Let's end it nice and mean

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
Please step out of my car
Ha ha ha

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
No you just went too far
Ha ha ha

Hey there bad move
I guess you're feeling low but just get down off that window
You can call me sometime
I think I have a moment in 2029

You can sugar me all you like baby
Had a feeling you might baby
Let's end it nice and mean

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
Please step out of my car
Ha ha ha

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
No you just went too far
Ha ha ha

You can sugar me all you like baby
Had a feeling you might baby
Let's end it nice and mean

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
Please step out of my car
Ha ha ha

I don't worship the ground you walk on anymore
Don't live in the house you're stalking anymore
No you just went too far
Ha ha ha
