

Danzig, Devil's Angels (Davie Allan & the Arrows cover)

No place of our own
Nowhere we can be alone
Nowhere we can go
Where the people don't know

That we're devil's angels

Angels on the run
We can't see the harm that's done
Thinking all along
That it's right to be wrong

When we're devil's angels

Angels riding into hell
Riding into hell
Like thunder
Motherfucker

Looking for the way
Hoping we don't have to pay
But we never learn
Angels can't get burned

When we're devil's angels
