

Danzig, Godless

Godless feeling in me..
Night after night..
Godless feeling in me..
Bourn of their lives..

You gave me all of this and more, yeah,
that's for sure..
I can't believe in all your pain
under the draining of a christian deities blood..
You tell your chidren they're insane...

I couldn't love it anymore
had to listen to my heart...
Couldn't take it anymore...
So you live me godless...

Just spread your tentacles of hate around my life..
I've taken more than you could ever give..
You can't believe that someone challenges your right..
I'm gonna send you back your pain...

I ask all who have gathered here to join me..
In this feast may we always be strong in body,
spirit and mind, and all of those who would try to harm us,
let them be cast aside.
