

Darius Rucker, In This Together

We're all in
All in
All in this together

You do you
I'll do me
Same kinda different ain't a bad thing
Live your truth
Dream your dreams
Everybody got their own harmony to sing

Don't matter if you're big city living or a little more po-dunk small town
We all got a ticket on this big rock spinning, and the ride ain't slowing down

We're all in
All in
All in this together
Whether we're flying or falling
Or pulling that good time lever
Bring your wild, bring your crazy, bring your what-the-hell weird
Life ain't a party if we ain't all here
We're all in
All in
All in this together

People say haters hate
Others sing, "There's gonna be a change"
So raise a glass
Shake a hand
Live it up while you still can
It ain't that hard to understand

We're all in
All in
All in this together
Whether we're flying or falling
Or pulling that good time lever
Bring your wild, bring your crazy, bring your what-the-hell weird
Life ain't a party if we ain't all here
We're all in
All in
All in this together, yeah

I thank the Man above
For giving me so many people to love
And it ain't you or me, it's us
And that's what makes it better, oh

We're all in
All in
All in this together
Whether we're flying, falling
Or pulling that good time lever
Bring your wild, bring your crazy, bring your what-the-hell weird
Life ain't a party if we ain't all here
We're all in
All in

All in this together, yeah
You do you and I'll do me
And it's okay if we disagree
But we're all in
All in

All in this together
