

Dark Sarah, Melancholia

In the silence, I hear you now
In the silence
In the fire dance, I see a wild chance
In the silence, I hear you now
In the silence
I feel your rage and your desire
I'm seeing you inside the fire

It is violence to feel you here
It is violence
So much heartache
And so much pain
It is violence to feel you here
It is violence
To see you now when time has passed
To see your shade inside the fire

Talk to me and speak to me
I don't know you
If I call for you
I want to talk to you
For here we are
To set the world
In flames for good
I truly feel I'm in a different time

Like a tyrant, you used my faith
Like a tyrant, you broke defiance
Threw to the lions
As a tyrant, I see you now
Tyrant!
But when I hear you speaking without words
You reach my mind the way it just hurts

Ave Luna

Talk to me and speak to me
I don't know you
If I call for you
I want to talk to you
For here we are
To set the world
In flames for good
I truly feel I'm in a different time

I see you went away
And I just got astray
I was about to fall
Did you feel like that too?
I see you went away
And I just got astray
I was about to fall
Did you feel like that too?
Did you feel like that too?
Did you feel like that too?
Did you feel like that too?

Talk to me and speak to me
I don't know you
If I call for you
I want to talk to you
In flames for good

I truly feel I'm in a different time

Talk to me and speak to me
I don't know you
If I call for you
I want to talk to you
To set the world
In flames for good
I truly feel I'm in a different time

I'm in a different time
I'm in a different time
